Guards Surprised by Miners Intent Upon Releasing Convicts.

Each Side Fires a Volley-One Miner Killed and One Wounded-Two Guards Seriously Wounded-The Miners Retreat and Another Fight Is Expected.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17 .- Three hundred miners attacked the stockade at Oliver Springs this morning to release 270 convicts there. The guards attempted to slip out and surprise the miners, but were themselves surprised.

The guards gathered together in a band and fired at the miners, killing one and wounding another. The miners turned to retreat but fired a volley as they ran, seriously wounding two guards; one in the groin, the other through the breast. The miners then retreated and are now in conference.

An attack is expected every minute There are only about thirty guards and with the reinforcements the miners can have, they will wipe out the little handful on their next attack. Bloodshed is

MURPHY LYNCHED.

He Did Not Know How to Pray, But Begged Hard for His Life.

Mr. Sterling, Ky., Aug. 17.—Early Tuesday morning, Logan Murphy, the murderer of a young man named Steele, was taken from the jail by lynchers They took him outside the city to the trestle over the K. and S. A. railroad and equickly arranged a rope around the prisoner's neck. They asked him is he wanted to pray. "I don't know how," he said, and asked the mob to pray for him, to which they replied as he did, and, fastening his hands, one man pushed the prisoner from the trestle. He fell a distance of eight feet. breaking his neck. He was left until eight o'clock Tuesday morning, when he was cut down, and, after the coroner's inquest was turned over to an undertaker.

Murphy was one of the worst men of Eastern Kentucky. When 14 years old he shot a man in Magoffin county, and had served a term in the penitentiary. He had robbed stores, killed stock and laid in ambush hoping to kill those who would not tolerate his meanness. Finally he killed his father in 1890, because he would not allow stolen property on his premises.

In April last, after having been sentenced to hang, he escaped prison here, but was recaptured before getting outside of the city. Later he secured a knife and cut young Corbett in jail, this county, and opened a government was the killing of Steele with a knife, he had won off of him.

He was a terror among even the most daring demons; was an illegitimate Monday night and notified him that unchild left at the door of his adopted less he carted his stock out of town ather, the man whom he murdered, within twenty-four hours his place Married about four years ago, and for would be wrecked, and esteeming disthe fun of it frequently shot at the cretion the better part of valor he glasses on his mother-in-law's eves. The people of Mt. Sterling have no part in cost of moving his stuff he would dethe lynching, are opposed to mob violence, but the death of such a man is regretted only as to the way. Murphy was only 20 years old.

A Democrat Will Succeed Mr. Warwick. COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 17 .- Secretary of State Poorman received Tuesday morning a telegram from the Canton Repository asking his opinion as to whether the successor of Congressman Warwick will be elected in the old (Sixteenth) or in the new (Eighteenth) district. Col. Poorman sent the following answer: have no doubt but that the election for Mr. Warwick's successor should be in the old Sixteenth district." Atty.-Gen. Richards, however, returned to Columbus Tuesday morning, and when asked in regard to the matter said unhesitatingly that the election should be held in the old Sixteenth district, although he had not looked up the special circumstances of the case. This leaves little doubt in regard to the matter.

The Pursuit Abandoned. VISALIA, Cal., Aug. 17,-All the officers who have been in pursuit of Evans and Sontag, the train robbers who "held up" the Los Angeles express near Fresno recently, have returned home. No traces of the men were found in the Sierras. The pursuit has now been abandoned altogether, as the robbers have had time to get far away.

A Double Wrong Avenged. PANA, Ill., Aug. 17 .- Orin Conly was shot and instantly killed Monday by Richard Dunaway, whose sister and 15-year-old neice he had ruined. Both men belong to prominent Shelby county families, but Conley had a hard reputation. Dunaway gave himself up to the police.

WARWICK'S FUNERAL. The Dead Congressman Placed in a Vault at Massillon, O.

MASSILLON, O., Aug. 17 .- It was quite 3 o'clock Tuesday when the belated train drew into the station yards. Company F and the police were utilized in holding back the crowd. The pallbearers, as announced, were in readi-G. Warwick was slowly removed from the car and borne to the hearse. The congressional party consisted of Congressmen Harter, Haynes, and Hare, down. all of Ohio; Seargeant-at-Arms S. S. at-arm's office, and Hon. J. J. Sullivan, years, were burned to death in their of Cleveland. The family was the last to leave the car. The procession at once formed and proceeded via Mill and Oak streets to St. Timothy's church.

The command presented arms as Gov. McKinley, escorted by Clement Russell, passed into the sanctuary. When the guests had taken the seats assigned to them, the body was carried up to the space in front of the chancel, and the family entered. The floral decorations were profuse.

The services began at once under the direction of Rev. E. L. Kemp. The quartet sang, "Thou Art My Rest," Nearer, My God, to Thee," and the chant, "Abide in Me." The solemn service for the dead was then read. After the church services had been concluded the casket was carried out upon the lawn, and the national guards- trouble, being very much chased. men formed in lines on either side, while tle is continued it is feared the militia the vast concourse of people passed through.

> The procession moved to the cemetery, where the body was placed in the receiving vault.

INDICTED.

Fourteen of the Inman Rioters to Be Tried -The Mining Company's Lease.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 17 .- Atty. Gen. Brown presented the facts concerning Monday's attack on Inman to the grand jury at Whitehall Tuesday morning, and succeeded in having fourteen of the leaders of the mob indicted. He telegraphs here that he is confident of securing their conviction. The last legislature made it a felony to interfere with the working of state convicts. The governor and state board of prison inspectors will Wednesday declare the lease contract forfeited. The lessee, the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Co., has been courting this action. The contract requires that it pay $25,000 at the end of each quarter, but they are now $97,000 behind, and owe the state $25,000 additional for recapturing and returning convicts. In addition to this they have refused to receive and provide for the convicts returned here, and have practically abandoned the lease. It will cost the state $150,000 per year to feed convicts unless the prison board makes a new lease as they are authorized to do.
